

Red Thread Stories

Listening “on Purpose”

Friday August 17

This workshop is for people who wish to deepen and explore their listening skills using creative processes and stories.

Listening is critical in every aspect of our life and work. Artful listening prevents conflict, builds teams and develops workable relationships. We explore different ways to listen to people’s stories and experiences so they are heard and valued.

At the end of the workshop you will have skills to

- Identified your listening “edges”
- Listen in different ways using your body and heart
- Listen without words
- Plan how to apply listening skills to your work/ life context
- Enable you to experience and appreciate the wonder of listening well

Learn by doing, reflecting, discovering and applying knowledge and skills to work situations.

For Managers, community workers, psychologists, service providers, H.R practitioners...anyone who works with people!

Venue Warner Hall. Merthyr Uniting Church 52 Merthyr Rd New Farm.

Date/ Time Friday 17 August 8.30 for 8.45 start-3.30 pm

Cost $175 plus GST.

Group Package Three or more people who book and pay together receive 10% discount.

Register Kris Plowman kris@redthreadstories.com.au

Enquiries Jen Barrkman jen@redthreadstories.com.au

Web: www.redthreadstories.com.au

Red Thread Stories

Creating Connection