

Red Thread Stories

Facilitation Skills Friday October 19

Learn how to:

- Identify key elements critical to engaging and warming up groups
- Use creative strategies for enhancing active participation
- Safely facilitate people to share their stories and experiences in groups.
- Explore and play with your strengths and edges as a facilitator
- Practise facilitating groups in diverse work situations

These skills are critical for working with many different contexts such as work teams, community forums and events, community development activities, change processes, consultations and reviews.

Learn by doing, reflecting, discovering and applying knowledge and skills to work situations.
